Released to radio/press only [1211] Sampler – (released 2000 while working with Rock Stars as MD/drummer) - which is a somewhat beaty, trippy meld of loops - hip-hop meets jungle meets pop. It's a melodic slice of powerful electronica, but it basically describes the universe around us and plight of the planet. Basically a Superbowl of noise!

Propaganda Klann's single [MR. PRESIDENT] was a satirical look at the reasons why politicians and other public figures hijacked the republican debate for their own fatuous motives. 1999 saw them perform live @ LIVID.

"a hypnotic slice of pop, with some twisted programmed sounds."
